

tions. Most of the bags in one of these lots had been cut into by rodents, and rodent pellets were found on and around the bags in the other lot.

Between August 4 and October 2, 1941, the United States attorneys for the Southern District of Alabama, Eastern District of Louisiana, Eastern District of South Carolina, Eastern District of Arkansas, and the Southern District of Florida filed libels against the following quantities of flour—585 24-pound bags at Mobile, Ala.; 160 6-pound sacks, 146 10-pound sacks, 44 12-pound sacks, and 59 20-pound sacks at Baton Rouge, La.; 55 48-pound bags at Marion, S. C.; 48 98-pound bags and 68 48-pound bags at Little Rock and 12 98-pound bags at Searcy, Ark.; and 68 98-pound bags at St. Petersburg, Fla.; alleging that the article had been shipped within the period from on or about February 28 to on or about August 25, 1941, by General Mills, Inc., from Kansas City, Mo., Wichita Falls, Tex., Louisville, Ky., and Oklahoma City and El Reno, Okla.; and charging that it was adulterated. It was labeled in part: (Bags) "Lucky Boy Flour," "Red Star Flour * * * Self Rising," "Pure Gold * * * Self-Rising Flour," "Gold Medal Flour," "Soft Wheat Snow Cap Flour," "Money Maker * * * Gold Medal Flour," "Bonnie Mae * * * Phosphated Flour," "Potent Strong Bakers Clear Flour Bleached," or "Full Strength Gold Medal Flour."

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy substance. Portions were alleged to be adulterated further in that the flour had been held under insanitary conditions whereby it might have become contaminated with filth.

On October 3, 1941, no claimant having appeared for the lot seized at Mobile, judgment of condemnation was entered. The court having found that the product could be manufactured into hog feed and that a reasonable price had been offered for it, ordered that it be sold on condition that the purchaser execute a bond conditioned that it be disposed of in compliance with the law under the supervision of the Food and Drug Administration, and that he pay the costs of the proceedings. On October 4, 1941, the Tropical Grocery Co., St. Petersburg, Fla., claimant for the flour seized at St. Petersburg, having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation was entered and the product was ordered released under bond to be denatured and disposed of as animal feed under the supervision of the Food and Drug Administration. Between September 25 and December 8, 1941, no claimant having appeared for the remaining lots, judgments of condemnation were entered and they were ordered destroyed.
